Subject: Mutual of Omaha Says "No" to TARP Funds

From the desk of Randy Kuenzi

As you know, the federal government has extended Troubled Assets Relief Program (TARP) funds to life insurers. Unlike other insurers, Mutual of Omaha has not applied for funds under TARP and has no plans to do so.

Not only has Mutual of Omaha not applied for any government money, we have not requested any statutory relief. That's great news for Mutual of Omaha and for those doing business with us. We're a strong, stable and secure company – as witnessed by our affirmed A+ A.M. Best rating just last week and the two recent increases in our Comdex score, now at 95.

When your producers look at companies to place their business with, those are important distinctions. Distinctions that set Mutual of Omaha apart from many other insurers.
